Connecticut Self-Paced Online Courses

Accessible, court-accepted online education designed for adults covering decision-making, anger management, and anti-shoplifting awareness. Learn at your own pace, from anywhere.

EDUCATIONAL & AWARENESS

Adult Decision Making Course

This self-paced program helps adults develop stronger judgment and critical thinking skills for everyday life. Topics include evaluating consequences, managing impulses, and making responsible choices under pressure. The course is structured for flexible, independent learning and is designed to meet court requirements.

Enroll in the Adult Decision Making Course to begin.

Executive Education Decision Making

Designed for working professionals, this executive-level program builds advanced decision-making frameworks used in leadership and management. Participants explore real-world scenarios, ethical reasoning, and strategic thinking to improve outcomes in high-stakes environments. Access the Executive Education Decision Making program online.

Anger Management Class

This online course teaches practical techniques for recognizing triggers, managing emotional responses, and developing healthier communication habits. It is structured to meet court requirements and is suitable for individuals seeking personal growth or fulfilling a legal mandate.

Court Accepted

Recognized for court-ordered participation.

Flexible Schedule

Complete lessons at your own pace, on your own time.

Practical Tools

Learn real strategies for everyday situations.

Register for the Anger Management Course today.

Anti-Shoplifting Class

This awareness course addresses the causes and consequences of shoplifting, helping individuals understand the legal, social, and personal impact of theft. It provides practical tools for making better choices and avoiding future offenses. Learn more about the Anti-Shoplifting Class online.

Thank You

Thank you for taking the time to explore these educational resources. We hope these courses support your learning, awareness, and personal growth. Visit Self-Paced Online Courses to get started.